SIXTH AVENUE AND TWENTY-THIRD STREET.

Coachman Whitdale Dies in the Hospital from Blows.

Election Night Celebration Ends with a Quarrel.

The Police Looking for Gerrity, to supposed Assallant.

Detectives Casey and Devinney, of the West Forty-seventh street squad, ap-peared at the Yorkville Police Court peddler, lives at 430 East One Hundred this morning, having in their custody and second street. He has a stable in two respectable looking young men, the rear of his house. Early this morn whom they suspected of being concerned ing Smith heard a noise in the stable, in the death of James Whitdale, a mid- and hastily donning his clothes he went die-ared coachman, who lived with his out to investigate. He found that John wife and three children at 134 West Fif- Brown, of 1887 Third avenue, and Jos tieth street. His death occurred at 3 Schorley, of 2124 Second avenue, has o'clock this morning at Roosevelt Hosbroken into the place. "What do you want here?" demanded o'clock this morning at Rooseveit Hospital from the effects of injuries received in a fight in the courtyard of 144 West Fiftieth street on election night.

The prisoners were John Baxier, fortyfour years oid, and Whiliam Mannick, aged thirty-two years, both private coachmen, living at 144 West Fiftieth street. Mannick is employed by Mr. Francis Draz, of 36 East Fifty-seventh attreet, the importer of Pommery Sec.

The court yard in which Whitdale was found unconscious at 10 o'clock on Tuesday night led to a row of stables. In one of the stables, owned by Mr. Draz, a number of coachmen were having a good time drinking beer from a keg, which had been given to them by Saloon-Reeper Burke for carrying that election district. Among them were the prisoners and Whitdale. They called him all sorts of names and pelted him with stones and sticks.

Mannick said that he finally interfered. When he stepped outside he was assaulted, and received a blow in the right eye, which was discolored this morning. He said that a man named loseph Gerrity, employed as driver for Park & Tilford, at Thirty-eighth street and fists a evenue, had some words with Whitdale. Whitdale was teed to affect out of the canaded to the canaded that he advised him to go home.

A half an hour later Baxter said that cound Whitdale lying unconscious in the court-yard and had him removed to the hospital, where he died this morning

without having regained consciousness.
Two bruises, one on the neck and the other on the right side of the head, were found. His death, it is believed, was due to concussion of the brain. A postmortem examination will be made.

The police did not hear of the case until yesterday afternoon. The detectives at once proceeded to the hospital to see if they could get any particulars from Whitchie, but he was still unconscious. While there they saw laxter talking to the clerk, inquiring the condition of Whitdale. They placed him under arrest. Late last night they arrested Mannick.

The defectives had no evidence against the court-yard and had him removed to

PATROLMEN ON TRIAL

Campbell and Gerigherty Answer for that Station-House Racket.

Patrolmen Abram Campbell and John J. Gerigherty, of the Leonard street station, were arraigned for trial before Commissioner heehan this morning on charges preferred by Capt. Cross. Both quarrelled over the lighting and Both quarrelled over the lighting and extingishing of a light in the station-house section room early on the morning of Oct. 28 hast. Gerigherty pulled Campbell out of bed, giving him a black eye in the scrimmage, but Campbell reported that his injuries were accidental. Later he admitted that they were not. To-day Gerigherty was charged with assault and Campbell with raisifying his report of the affair. Lawyer Louis J. Grant defended them. Decision was reserved.
